Only two Canadian Baronets.
Eg. Sir Charles Tupper "given W.O. note on abt. orbis, Sept 1915 p. 1044 really "Where shoes, latchet &c." Baronetcy. 1911

CUS417/111.81

"The latchet of whose shoe I am unworthy to unloose" as he wrote to Arch. Mellor &c. (St John's gospel)?

W.O. had always looked upon at the idea of receiving a title and hated anything using titles to Hughes, Jackson as one where Macdrs he was not fit to tie these sound of little meaning [G.R.O. "What excuse are you going to give for declining it you've always said you would accept it." W.O. "I think I must accept it or Canada would be so much disappointed.

On June 11th - House full of people. Attlee & Moore Mrs. McCoy &c. & many other - W.O. walked in with the news in his hand & gave Lady O a note which read as follows
Lady O. said when a chance to see him alone that it was too bad he couldn't accept it and he said he hoped he could so please the Canadians - this being of one Cor. Bennet at the time believe.

Kept secret: two weeks later. Lady O gave to Lavin 2-3 days before.

"Have no Baronetcy announced" W.O.

Just a base in London for the Coronation - lent the Gossage's house (friends of Mac -) 7 Aug. 7 Aug.
All in town (W.O. in Oxford) Lady O called to telephone - "the devil, fate in the fine this baronetcy thing is out!! Hon. William says so" Lady O got a paper & found it in paper. The crowd back here seemed. a row of telegraph boys journey out of Norton Gardens.
