

Wednesday? '08 -

Dear Edward

I was so glad to hear from you, it seemed such ages to wait from Saturday to Monday <sup>I mean Tuesday</sup> - It's such a queer thing? - the mail which I never took any notice about before has suddenly become my chief interest -

I have just been speaking to Muriel L. at the telephone she was at South St. Marie last summer, she thought it was quite a nice place so cheer up! I do hope that you have <sup>your</sup> some one to amuse you by this time, a "pretty girl" or some such toy - It is so horrid to be in a strange place all by your little lone self -

What about mushrooms and salads do you still live on them? please do eat something substantial -

Talk of exciting things the presents are just pouring in, Gwen have just come, but of course Ruth is out.

I could go on telling you about presents all night, for we have just opened 12 that came this afternoon. spoons, chafin dish, butter dish, candle sticks, entre dishes etc - etc - The exciting atmosphere of not knowing what next is nerve racking to say the least -

It really is the biggest disappointment I've had for ages or ages not having you here to take part in all the fun. It is the hardest thing to say all I want to tell you about, in writing -

Wasn't it sweet of George he came and took me for a walk on Sunday. I suppose he thought I would be lonely - He told me that he quite intended going down to the station to see you off, but unfortunately he fell asleep and I expect dreamt of you instead of seeing you -

Last night Eva and I went down to sing to Owa's little ruffians they had such wicked faces but they really behaved very well and after the show was over the president got up and said "Three cheers for the girls" - the girls being us - sweet of them wasn't it? -

Yesterday I went to the circus with Madge and George it was rather batty - just a series of acrobats doing things that made you creep - I think it is perfectly horrible to see people tie themselves up so that they look like puzzles instead of humans.

Well "Glorified morning Sunshine" you know <sup>now</sup> what I have been doing ~~now~~ since you left - hope you approve?

Please don't be lonely & please please do be good to yourself, lots & lots of love from just Lois - That's all -

~~secret~~ secret

montreal is just beauty without you hope you get holidays very very soon.

re her sister Ruth's wedding present arriving
