17th Jan 1942

My dear little Grass Widow

I expect you have had a great free day untrammelled by the need of thinking up menu's for an unappreciative lazybody. I can picture you denting a front fender in your haste to get back to your dear kiln where doubtless there is now sizzelling some great works of creative art.

For me I had hardly settled down to read before the wretched trainman began bellowing for us to get off at Ottawa and there

if you please was <sup>2</sup>Stewart waiting for me at the gate.

We had lunch together and I have just returned from walking with him over to the Woods Building where he has his office.

During lunch my new boss Mr F. H. Brown came over and after being introduced to Cobbett, sat down long enough for a brief chat and an 8 o'clock engagement for breakfast tomorrow morning Cobbett gave me just the one

place which he considered would be suitable as living quarters
— third floor, consisting of room and bath 186 Clemons, next door to the house where Stewart has similar accommodation — rate $45<sup>00</sup> a month breakfast if desired at an extra.

As a precaution please send me my return book, mailing it to me at the Rideau Club.

I have a comfortable room
529 but with basin only.

Nice double bed with window facing on court where it will be quiet.

Will now ring up
Your affect bushum
Edward
