Dear Mrs. Winslow-Spragge:

There is enclosed a copy of the Accession form covering the four leaves from the scrapbook of Mr. Graham Dunlop which you gave me this morning. I find that the clippings included, supplement some which we have on Sir William's various obituaries in the indexed scrapbooks, so this constitutes an important addition to the collections.

It was very good to have a calm and most pleasant hour with you this morning and look forward to the afternoon of Thursday, 20 January when I will call for you at 3:00 p.m. so that you can see the Harrington exhibit before the meeting in Dr. S.B. Frost's office when the computerized index to the Dawson Papers will be opened.

Cordially yours,

John Andreassen
University Archivist

REFERENCE	ITEM / DOCUMENT	DATES	LOCATION
FW:jd 13 Jan. 1977	Four leaves from a scrapbook, 50 x 32 cm., containing newsclippings on the death of Sir John William Dawson. The source of the clippings is often not noted, but many items on these pages (e.g. "A useful life ended", drawings of funeral service and procession across campus) are not in University Scrapbooks. The clippings are pasted or taped to the pages and many are loose. This accession will be microfilmed at the earliest opportunity, as the paper is very fragile. Mrs. Winslow-Spragge received these pages from Mrs. Wynn Robinson, whose father, Graham Dunlop, made the scrapbook.	1899	RG.20
