

wd it not be a good plan for you to have a little tin received at the foot of your stair with that In a room for cards - that saw so much running up & down - They already have them in the scotch hall & as you know here also but perhaps your door has to be opened in any case

Mrs E. B. Greenfield, is having a tea & Lois goes with Miss Barron - who now rather likes a group of people - she expects to sail from New York Dec 2^d by a large fine boat - & will every thing ordered for the Inland & G. H. is going on well but - finds life a bit dull we try to arrange a visit for as many days as we can - & I try to have Clara go out as much as may be - Alice was in yesterday

Looking very charming - May is staying at Keewaydin, & will be there for another week or two - Aunt Min - is also there

I enclose an account of the presentation of father's picture - we did not go - eq-cific - Will who went with Mrs M - It seemed to me it was like trying for people to say the right thing to me & they would have been obliged to speak to us - all went well & the papers do not well represent the affection & feeling that was shown both by Dear Adeline & Dr B - I saw to see the graduates letter in a story or two

My Cardus is with Mrs Malcom

Love to Ted - I was glad to have had a glimpse of your easy flat - may be every day in it - he believes that the cat - mother
