

Salem, Mass. May 30.

Dear Sir:

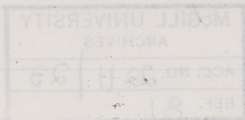

You will see by the circular lately sent you that the American Association will meet here in August. I hope that you will be able to attend the meetings, and I now write to ask you to give me the pleasure of ~~your~~ being your host while you are in Salem.

Hoping that I shall have the pleasure of your company at that time,

I remain, yours sincerely,
A. S. Packard Jr.
