London, S.W. 24th April 1870

My dear Sir

I have to thank you very much for your tickets which Miss Auldjo, Mr Prentice & myself will have much pleasure in availing ourselves of.

Could you put me in the way of communicating with Mr. Mackenzie who you say has a silver property on Lake Superior? I shall venture to bribe you with a percentage on any profits I may make, to be given to your own University.

Yours faithfully
Dr. W. Prentice

My dear Mr. Brewster I have a blank of your work for your tablet which this evening, Mr.
Pentecost thought all have most pleasure in viewing copies of.
I will be glad to see a copy of your manuscript with Mr. Brewster's name and a silver portrait of him a silver portrait of his wife? I shall venture to write you with a few words and profit from my work.
I am ever
yours truly
J. H. Runkle
