S. W. Dawson L. L. D.,
Dear Sir

We enclose prospectus of a work for which we are anxious to have a sketch of your life, also a photograph of yourself from which to engrave your portrait on steel, these being about the only kind of portraits that will not fade, make in connection with the sketch a valuable relic for family & friends.

Please inform us whether we may send you a copy of the first series, it will assist you in the preparation of the sketch and in selecting the style of engraving.

We would ask your early attention to the matter as much of the material is now in the hands of the printer & engraver.

Yours very respectfully,
N. Y. & Hartford Pub. Co.
The sketch may be in due good words or shown in length
