Baltimore, March 8, 1872.

My dear Sir,

I wish to thank you for your valuable Report on Prince Edwards Island, which we received some days ago.

I am glad to know that you have not forgotten your visit to Baltimore by these occasional remembrances which you are kind enough to send us. We are still struggling to form a valuable library, and have received from students many commendations of our books relating to paleontology, which we modestly accept, knowing all the while that we are greatly indebted to your advice when here in selecting these books. We have now reached nearly 50,000 volumes, and have been for nearly two years busy in preparing a catalogue of them.

Our lectures are prospering, and I hope some day to hear you again on some branch of your favourite pursuit.

I was very sorry not to find you at home last July when I was in Montreal. I called at the college, but <sup>you</sup> had gone to the sea. I was equally unfortunate in not seeing Dr.
Carpenter, who, I hope, is well.

Yours, very truly,

M. H. Morrison.

Dr. Dawson.
