Dear Sir

I duly received your favour, and brought home all the clothing out of the closet, as you desired. ~~but~~ also two trunks out of the parlor. I hope there will be no more trouble of this kind. I wrote to the printer in St Oetange. And Sandy Bay the one in French Bay apart to the people about and at least here Sunday might to say he would do all in his power to find out the guilty parties all have been shown that can be done without

law. Every day
some one of us go round your home, and the others. Our little in-
-dent in connection with your home is a single just now, think we have a death case and cast in the hall but gulf, but not their own please but we know of them articles near there I have examined the down

And cellar, went all round, can find nothing wrong, every thing seems to be the same, and in order, as when left -

Yours Respectfully
