

Tweeddale Court.

Edinburgh April 18. 1878

Dear Sir

We wrote to you on the 13th inst stating that the certificate required had been forwarded that day to Law Notarials. We have now the pleasure of acknowledging receipt of your letter of 4th inst with remittance of £ 35 to account for which receipt is enclosed with our best thanks.

We sent you a copy of "The Academy" containing review of "Acadian Zoology" and we have just read a favourable notice in the Philosophical Quarterly Review for April.

We hope the sale may meet your expectations. As Messrs Macmillan & Co are the London publishers, the demand will be principally through them: but we are announcing the book in our Trade Lists, and doing what we can to effect sales. We are

Dear Sir

Yours truly,

Principal Dawson

Dear Mother
I received your kind letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.

I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place and doing the same work. I hope to hear from you soon. I am your affectionate son,
John Smith
