

Attawa July 31th 78

My dear Sir

Your kind favor of the 26th I only received last night on my return here from Duckingham with Mr. Munn. of little had been brought me by my boy. Many thanks for the specimen of Logoon and two wharf of Marcellais for the Book.

I have ascertained from the Railroad people that

McGill University

ACC. NO. 1301
REF. 119

Your boxes were delivered on the 26th and I hope came to hand safely.

On your account I shall endeavor to make the visit of Prof. Kaku as agreeable as lay in my power. I fancy I have something new to send
you. will attend to it in a few days.

As you will have had an opportunity of considering with Mr. Monro. before he reaches you. I will merely say that his trip to the Deerfield & Portland Country seemed to please him very much.

I remain dear Sir
Yours sincerely
