Sir

We are trying to secure services of a thoroughly competent man for our school here, & our Trustees offer a liberal salary. Among those who have applied is Mr R. M. Campbell who has been teaching in the Normal School for five years, & has an Academy Diploma, & also a Certificate of honor from your University.

You are one of those to whom he refers as able to testify to his ability to fill such a position, & I therefore take the liberty of inquiring whether in your judgment be proper of qualifications required?

I may state that <sup>the</sup> School has, through inefficiency of late master, run down very much indeed, & we want a man capable of building it up again. There is good material to work with — plenty of scholars, ample funds, & of Trustees are most earnest in their desire to have a first class school & will do their utmost to strengthen hands of Teacher

As one of a Committee appointed to aid of Trustees in selection of a master I have been requested to write to those gentlemen to whom Mr Campbell has referred. The Committee will meet on Monday night when it is probable a decision will be come to, & I therefore trust you will be kind enough to favour me with a reply at your earliest convenience & oblige

Yours truly
