

Rock Ferry 17 May 1886.

Dear Sir William,

Allow me to introduce to you Mr. John Richmond, whom I have known from childhood. I was trustee under the marriage settlement of his parents, and executor for his late father. I have known nothing but good of him all his life. He is thinking of making a settlement for himself and son in Canada and of subsequently sending for his wife and the remainder of his family.

It is rather out of your way to advise him, as he seeks a commercial life, but if he needs an introduction from you, you may confidently rely upon his integrity, and that he will not abuse your recommendation. With kind regards

Remain, Dear Sir William

Yours faithfully

Geo. A. Brown.
