My dear Sir William

Good, I did not know you were coming, nor do I yet know when your lectures begin, but Cutting will tell me. Your old Cambridge friends will be glad to see you, and hear, when they can, tho'. I am not very good at that.

I shall see my colleague Goodale with will I run up what live track you want, But come out here at once and see what there is.

Unless the course is one of the long ones,
I suppose they will all be done in January.

My wife, before your letter came was on the point of writing to Lady Dandson. She will say that, of course
we jump at the prospect of a visit from her and Eva, &
that before we run
on to Washington,
which is likely to take from the 6th to the 13th Jan 7 - or, better, after the 14th, when we might have an unlimited visit.
So please arrange. Sincerely yr
Subs

Dr Gray
