

Tuesday Morning

Dear Sir William

I was not able to see Mr Hague yesterday. I had with Mrs Grolson to see to the funeral of an old lady & had not a mo-ment to spare, until evening

I will see Mr Hague at once and endeavour to get to work at ~~once~~ without delay.

I saw the article in the "Star" it is most mischievous, but I do not see that any thing can be done about it.

I do not think a notice of the kind you propose to the "Star" would do good. Newspapers of that class need notoriety to live by & might throw the paper into our enemies hands

I found the enclosed note of Dr.
Murray's on the Grolson's Bank table yesterday. it would have

G. A. Neale
May/88

4

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page] fallen from your bundle.

Hoping things may become satisfactory thro' our meeting Dr

Murray Believe me

Yours Sincerely
John A. Pattison