

27, Paternoster Row,

TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
EXPOSITOR LONDON.

London, 12 Jan^y 1897

E.C.

My dear Sir William Dawson

Dr. Rankine Dawson called for his set of your books and we told him that they had gone to Montreal.

The revise of your new book & cuts duly came to hand, we are now proceeding quietly with the printing when we get a set of sheets worked you shall have them by mail

I am thankful to say Mr. Hodder, although still unwell, is progressing as well as can be expected

With kind regards

I believe we

Yours sincerely

M. A. Hodder

Sir William Dawson & Co.