Dear Sir William

I wanted to see you so very very much. I only heard yesterday that you had called on Friday.
I was busy with my uncle at the time and I had told the maid that I would not see any visitors but if you had only sent me your Card it would have been a great comfort to have had your advice. Katharine too was very much disappointed.

If you are free on Sunday, a visit from you would be most acceptable.

Yours very truly
Adelaide Campbell
