

I have much pleasure in Mr. Whittier's offer to present me with a volume of the chain of nature which in the present I beg leave to state that Mr. Whittier also had present & has received & conveyed as a present some stands as a natural and Palaeontological in England has been needed with the natural history of the
 its scientific and
 security and the security of the State the Council

In that then he has chiefly managed the affairs
to them a meeting were about they did not before Pope. He has also largely arranged the ~~affairs~~ of his an affairs of exchanges and of particular questions. In this case for the brief he has attempted to
by that agreement <sup>with</sup>
the Policy July & Place only of the country. He has also pursued with great zeal and success
several measures
and books of law.

Nathaniel, more especially the Irish and the Mellon and the Tramper and has collected several papers on these subjects both in the country and in England.

Mr. Williams has been <sup>employed</sup> ~~employed~~ to survey clashes in connection with
in several occasions given by accounts and tables reprints of subjects not long at the monthly meeting of the Society.

Lecture
Whiteaves

Mr Whiteaves has had the charge of preparing Crepedite under the patronage of the Dept of War
secured material which
more than 50 species to the known fauna of this country.

All who know Mr Whiteaves desperat know the value and attainments
of his scientific researches
