My Dear Miss Margaret.

A knot on my Pocket Handkerchief brought to mind my promise to give you the words of Jim Crow, accordingly you will receive them enclosed with my best respects &c. Yesterday being a strict Holiday rendered this day very busy and left me too little time to copy them in such a legible style as I could have wished but however I know you will excuse them.

I hope you are no worse of our fur last night. Wasnt you' chap that came up the street with us real like a Fieldmouse

I shall be with you some night very soon in the meantime believe me yours very sincerely

John Forrest.
