

Aldershot Camp
13th May

My dear Mrs Dawson

It will be perfectly convenient if coming on Wed. You shall be more than delighted to see you, but if Husband must not go back to town on Thursday he must be in town on Fri. he can go as early as he likes, & as our new Station is now

Open & close at hand, he can get away by the 8.22 - or 10.18. The former reaches London at 9.45 - & the other at 11.43 - but if possible I hope he will stay till Fri. Evg or Sat - but I will not be selfish. I know how much he has to do. It is most kind of you both to come. As for say, we must reserve our talk till we meet. I won't take up y^r time now -

Asked C. R. Cheney to send

The tickets to J. Husband, so if he sh^d be away on his You might open his letter instead of forwarding it - Send you a list of the names those on the back of the card are those fr^m London here. fr^m the Waterloo Station The others are for Reading So I made out for myself but I send you the card as it is ready. I Susar wait to make another, so no not to lose a post -

Not let her know on Tues.
What train you will come by,
& I shall meet you at the Station - with kindest regards to J. Husband & George, I wish you w^d bring him too, do. we have plenty of room to nude love to yourself ever J^{rs} very affectly
