Dear Lady Dawson

I was so sorry
when I went to call yesterday to find you gone. I did not know you were going quite so early to Metis.

I wanted to tell you how much we all enjoyed the wedding
I think it was quite the prettiest I ever saw. Mother & Maynard

agreed with me in thinking Eva a most picturesque bride.

I am sure poor
Lady Dawson you would have very mixed kind of feelings & would not be able to admire
as undistractedly.

As we were. Tho indeed we too shall miss Eva very very much
quite apart from my private feeling
for her she has always been a favourite
in our family circle & tried friends are not to be replaced
J^r & M^{rs} Harrington were very brace & good that day. It would have made a great-

blank had they not been present.

Good bye dear Lady Dawson.

Ever your loving
Jean Greenfields
