

My Dear Anna.

Will you please accept the accompanying mouchoir-case, which though trifling in itself, it has given me great pleasure to make, and to weave in with the stitches many wishes for a bright and happy future for you, with him whom you have chosen to be your life companion.

With sincere

congratulations, believe me to be,

Your attached friend
Mary A. Dury.

Tuesday May 30th