

Mr. Gile Col

July 14/68.

Dear George,

Free Mamma
has written a nice long letter, so I shall say only a few words.

I improved yesterday about Kinglake, and found it was not yet arrived.

The British edition which will be in fact is very expensive, $10, so I shall wait for the American, but shall leave an order to have it sent.

I have dealt with my Pass-out for another or possibly a set of books - keeping, with you to look at our company, and to write out some fairly good on the other hand, than I think with the very simple to you. Gladly you will be very amicable with your sister, with be required to you and to pass and that of others. I have

See Mr. Manning on his return, and arrange about the payment of your bond to you & Co. I have also arranged that you will thing for you from here can be sent with Mr. B's Journal so that you will set about that any further sent by just an old book or two during which you can look over; and by next train parcel I shall send a trial of "Preserving Seeds" to enter on the 8th inst.

It contains a receipt so you should be careful as to putting it in your hands. I also send paper sheets & Knives, and best lines for cleaning out the tank.

Please do not take yourself with this sort of work. The aquarium is in receipt of Monday and I shall send it by Monday's packet.

With all love and good wishes, and prayers for yours blessing on you Papa
