

Missed the table mail) your brother called Mr. Carmick has your trust S. Saunders wishes to work on the Dawson road - road for you are not likely to cross his path she is greatly distressed to me - she fears he will learn to drink Accept my best affection yours affectionate
Mother

M. G. College,
Montreal.

May 2

76.

Calling around writers on the day you expected to leave by steamer. It will be a great pleasure to me when I know you are on your way & I fear fatiguing journey. I have had two or three letters from Anna. The first today is to tell you that your Clinameter, ordered through Sanborn I think, was received last night.

William has gone to town to send it to you by parcel post, & if it can be done, to register it. So that if you are not yourself at Pelmbina you will have to send some^{one} there an order before it can be taken from the post office to send it to you.

The latest information from Papua was by telegram from East River in which he said, "all was going well so far." I have been trusting to W. telling you of the dreadful accurrence at the Hammond Mine by his P. Cartier's death is announced. Old Mr. Malson & old Mr. J. B. Anderson (Governor) are both seriously ill. Mrs. Baynes's mother is dead, also her brother-in-law General Bird. Nina is improving We have secured a Caterer at Riviere du Loup. I think it will be very quiet week she was at Sacouto she was quite unwell but she is now better & enjoying herself in a quiet way.

I have been very much occupied since you left first getting drawers & closets cleaned then mending & making ready for papa's journey & now as William may be hastily summoned to join Mr. Flemming's party I am getting an outfit for him. My chief object in writing