Lie W. H. D. Lawrence I do not ~~feel~~ <sup>try</sup> to act at all I like ~~to~~ <sup>to</sup> go to college perhaps you may be ~~able~~ <sup>to</sup> visit us before the Christmas holidays.
 I have again been into the ~~uptown~~ <sup>uptown</sup> - Mrs. G. at Eaton & Ames here which very ~~kind~~ <sup>kind</sup> most affectionately Mothers

"a really writer", has been keeping you informed of our movements so I shall not say much except in a general way that, personally I much enjoyed our trip & now I have to make that balance against my perfun-ness in having had to "sacrifice" this morning to Storm. She is replaced, temporarily, by a little timid, most polite person who has excellent testimonials from two London (England) hospitals & a patient with whom she lived two years. She applied to me for Mrs Elmer's place, as Cook, & has obliged by taking housemaid's work till Mrs E. leaves. If she suits in her present work & is willing to go on with it I will try to keep her in it.

 Time, however, will have to open the way to this. I have also found a lot of troublesome business awaiting me — insurance, same running out & all coming due at different dates. These have been put into Mr. Browning's care who is to arrange them to be paid at one date. I insure everything here & at Natick per three years. Then Mrs.

 Baelwell, George Bell's landlady, writes that his stock has not realized half ~~that~~ what was expected & offers me $200 per the $463 due.
 I suppose I had better take it rather than risk getting nothing. I incline to think her truthful but her statement is most confused. Lastly father's City 6% stock, per the largest Investment he has, expires 1st May & you will see by the notice received from Mr. Rabb. City Treasurers, that some steps requires to be taken. He invites reinvestment but at what rate of interest I do not know. I went yesterday to ask some questions but he was out, & it is so difficult to get about as the roads are impassable except by Cars & yesterday I had <sup>to make</sup> three changes before reaching the City Hall. Will you approve of my asking Sir W. Mr. Bonwell

At this point had a visit fr. Bonwell who said in regard to advise that he would rather ask Mr. Vaughan than
