Dear George, I have written to Mrs Crow, suggesting parents we wd like to have illustrations & so on. Also looked over a lot of letters written to my children when they were small. as I thought there might be some of papers amongst them, I enclose the result. Perhaps one or parts of two might not be amiss as illustrating his kindly fellowship with children. I always enjoyed seeing him & Eric together. They seemed so thoroughly in touch.

I have received the Paris paper which & the Times article which is very satisfactory & clears up a good deal of confusion, but between the entire mendacity of the ruling powers in China & the fact that beyond 10 miles on either side of the march of the coming out with something in about 10 days I will take care of being alone this forenoon, I put in an opinion - I am so sorry for your opinion - I am so pleas'd for him, I suggested staying where they are till they return and shall be lost, but she thinks that too disagreeable Franklin as to practice, of course it might be as well to begin to be connected to the system of commerce - has the system of agriculture

There is perhaps 74. between Guy & 92. whether, the more objection a I believe it having been entirely rejected & not in any words by your son. I shall, who is the ill to occupy it - I must return to Calabarco. I think the situation rather remote for a physician - another man also perhaps of parallel reputation there, is much better as to place over Dr. Brown & I shall never view things - but for does not if - because it is a duty - & has a lot of opinions I shall - I have not seen it - inside my net I shall - I think it - was what suitable, & they on Dr. Archibald's it - seem to me also rather out of the way being between Mackay & Guy's I shall - one has never seen her hand & whether as a matter of matter, only one or two objects right - if course the clear not known what then mind instead of having one like - the has quite given up the idea of settlement at out of the way - the says he - contented to give the allies, no hint of their designs seem to penetrate, it is very difficult to foresee what will happen or what possible treaty can be made or kept. I fear that the light & knowledge penetrate with the missionary, only a recession of disturbances can be expected. The missionaries are few & far between, but the zealous teaching is, as always, heaven; & only time is wanted to enable it to alter the whole course. A million of pounds to assist - well thought out missions as the C. I. M. - so help more than the same sum in soldiers or explorers, though at present they must be used.

Glo was much pleased at receiving a note of welcome from you - since the same we have all been on active duty in the matter of house-hunting, there are very few modern as to my mind suitable houses to be rented. Mostly old fashioned, or out of repairs chillings - many rooms & in fairly good situations - the one Glo at present inclines to is on place in a special gallery & also in the jewelry when the statue is unveiled.

Thus we jog on, always something ahead:-

Mother will not have her furnace lighted, & is recurring about more than I like on G's account but I think she rather likes that, so it is not so bad.

I hope the monument will be all right - now B - is to submit a full size paper lettered, be fore cutting - Eleanor had went there a few days ago on purpose to see what monument - had been erected & came away without recognizing any inscription but G. J. S. so you see it may be pretty hard & useful to check -

Much love dear
Anne
