ZÜRICH, 25 november 1918.

Sir William Osler,

Oxford.

Sir,

I beg^{to} acknowledge with thanks the draft for 354.- francs from London for balancing^{my} your account.

As soon as I hear from you that you got the permit for the Müller books I will not fail to forward them immediately.

As to the

Hecker. Die Lehre des Kreislaufs vor Harvey. 1831.

I beg to say that this has not been published separately, but it is contained in the 19th volume of Heckers literarische Annalen der gesamten Heilkunde 33 vol.

I shall do my best to find this volume for you, but it is probably difficult to make it out separately and as this periodical contains also many other interesting papers I beg to ask you whether you would perhaps be interested in the whole set.

Awaiting the favour of your reply, I remain, Sir,
