

CUS417/56.37

From Dr. Malloch's Journal.

Friday, August 4, 1916.

Boulogne. Such a depressed letter from Lady O. to Bill Francis. Says Sir Wm. is taking a gloomy view of things, and she has two duties in life; 1. to keep on cheering the wounded; 2. to keep her "Reggie" fit for his tremendous amount of work and strong enough to bear the parting with Revere.