

(letter, script)

G. R. O. to A. Malloch

CUS 417/56.46

Sunday

[29th Oct. '16]

--- The old people are bearing up bravely, I think. My great object now is to keep Sir William well - and in good form to meet any great worry that may come. But he careers about so - and spends so much time in London over the Education Board that I can hardly keep my fingers on him.