Dear Dr. Cushing,

<sup>He</sup> Roxton has asked me to let <sup>you</sup> know who was the author of the verses signed "S.S." <sup>an</sup> Osler's Text-book which appeared in the Guy's Gazette.

The author was H.O. Brookhouse - a very brilliant Cambridge and Guy's man who died at the age of about 30 in 1917, though not as a result of war service. His work - some of which appeared in "Punch" - was signed "S.S.", but the meaning of this I do not know.

I hope I shall have the pleasure of seeing you when you are next in England, and if I can be of any further help in connexion with <sup>the</sup> Biography, I shall be very pleased.

Kind regards

Yours sincerely,

A. M. St. Hill.
