Dear Harvey

I cannot refrain from writing you a word of congratulation on your great achievement. You have written a medical biography which easily ranks with Valley-Radot's Pasteur and beats Rickman Godlee's Lister. I brought it out to my farm to read last Sunday and it has absorbed every spare moment of my time since.
We will, of course, try to do it justice in the Annuals. The Profession owes you a debt of thanks.

With kindest remembrances

Yours very sincerely
Marion R. Packard
