7 FAIRFIELD STREET

Dear Harry.

I have been promising myself all this week that I would come on to you Sunday
and tell you in person how delighted I am that your kind and full biography got that recognition
as a work one waits
until death after

I have a kind word
said to that is especially pleasing - Also - it shows that the
P. Brads can read - That was the only necessity -
in this case -

I am off to Princeton but my father but when I come back

I shall make so bold
as to write myself
to a meal - I have a few side lights
