

1028/57/284

507 South 41st Street.

Phila delphia.

January 26th 1926.

CUS 417/57. 284

My dear B- Cushing:

Mr. Abbott tells me that there are many pages of the Life of Sir William Osler not-published in the book. Would it be possible for an admirer of the book to see a copy of the unpublished part? I wish with all my heart for a third volume! Aside from the excellence and charm of the book as a life of Osler, it is such a wonderful picture of the growth of laboratory subjects and of the struggle and change that has been going on in the teaching of medicine - I think that book of yours will take a place beside 'Boszy' on my shelves!

I can't thank you half enough for having written it!

Very sincerely

(Mrs William H. L. Addison) Stearns Addison.