My dear Professor Cushing,-

I haven't been so pleased with a Pulitzer award in a long while, and sometimes Pulitzer awards can be almost exasperating, as I have with their recognition of the Life of Osler.

My hearty congratulations on it. It has been lovely to see how the Osler has gone and how when it might have been only a conventional biography circulating among friends it has actually proved to be one of the books of the year.

With all good wishes then I am,

Yours very sincerely,
