Boston, Mass.

Dear Dr. Cushing:

I have already promised to turn over the manuscript of the Welch manuscript to Leonard Mackall who proposes to deposit it in Johns Hopkins. I have had a letter also from Mr. Flexner asking for the article. Mackall is interested entirely on behalf of the university and I suggest that you write a note to him as to the disposition which you think should be made of the manuscript. I shall be able to send it to him in two or three weeks. It was a pity I had to cut it but I think the essentials remained.

Very truly yours,

Henry S. Canby
