Dear Harvey -

A long letter from Mark Sullivan
— which should have arrived had
it been testfully
timed! the day before
rather than the day
after your dinner here
— contained the

Page. What a joy it must be to receive deserved
appreciation & praise.

When you
finish looking at the Daynt catalogue
leave it aby me.
put down & I will

Have I ever case
for it - Am off
for two or three days in New York
to attend to some business matters -

I shall look forward to getting back & seeing you.

Yours truly, with affectionate admiration
