

1028/57/368

CUS417/57.371

WILLIAMS INN

OPEN ALL THE YEAR

L. G. TREADWAY, MGR.

THOSE ALLURING BERKSHIRE HILLS

WILLIAMSTOWN, MASSACHUSETTS

August 4th, 1925.

My dear Harvey:

Pardon my delay in answering your inquiry of July 20th. We have been wandering about and found your note on our arrival here.

"R. E." are the initials of one Robert Emmons -not of Boston-, an Englishman, an Oxford man and also a friend of Revere Osler's and, I believe, of the family. At the present time he is studying, as a Rhodes Scholar I think, in this country.

When your volumes came to us it was quite impossible for me to give the time to write the critical review which I thought the life demanded. I offered the opportunity of reviewing your work to a number of our group, but no one would undertake it in the time I was willing to give them. It was then that through Davison, also a former Rhodes Scholar, we got Mr. Emmons, who was delighted at the chance, to do it for us.

We saw some of your family at Little Boars Head. They seemed cheerful and looked very fit.

Very sincerely yours,

Edward P. Carter