he will do with us to be along any particular line which you think might better fit him for your surgical service, I shall be glad to direct his work in that way.

May I, in conclusion, be permitted to give expression to the pleasure which I have derived from the reading of your "Life of Osler". Many sentences bring the beloved characteristics of the Chief vividly back to mind and renew in me my spirit of thankfulness that I was fortunate enough to attend the Hopkins while he and his titanic colleagues were still active. I had not realized, until I read the "Life", that it was his habit to sign his communications "W. O.". I now treasure all the more highly the third year examination paper which bears those initials under the word "Excellent". The preparation of the "Life" must have been arduous, but it must have been a labor of love.

With kindest regards, I am,

Very sincerely yours,
