Dear Mr. Mackall:

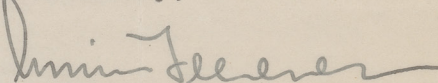

Because of absence from the city, I have been unable to send you an answer sooner to your letter of December 5.

Dr. Welch's complete review of Dr. Cushing's "Life of Dr. Osler" will be brought out privately in pamphlet form, and I shall take great pleasure in sending you a copy as soon as the edition is available. Indeed, I should be pleased to send you more than one copy if you would like to pass the pamphlet on to the Tudor and Stuart Club of Johns Hopkins.

As regards the reference to which you draw my attention - "The Confessions of a Yellow Journalist" - I regret to say I have no knowledge. I am not familiar with the title. The only way to ascertain definitely, I suppose, would be to write directly to Dr. Welch, if you thought the matter important and wished to do so.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Simon Flexner)
