Christmas Evening, 1925

68 BEACON STREET
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Dear Harry: You played the part of the ministering angel. How did you happen to think to bring in all those "Revisions" — and so innocent! Not knowing they had the interest of being about you! Almost the last thing said to: "It is a book the subject would like to have read himself." What more could be said!
I can't help picturing you father's price with Will's and Ned's not far behind!
I love the fresh laurels added
