My dear Dr. Howard

To you
more than ^{to} any one else my warmest thanks are due for the manner in which you have always sought to further

London 24th May 1841
Dear Mr. [unclear] I will be pleas'd to hear from you in respect of the [unclear] of my attainments. It now remains to be seen whether with teaching & preparation I can get on in any original work. Of course I shall try hard & shall come down as soon as I possibly can get any. I have been talking & my welfare, especially in this appointment in the College. I do not accept it without some diffidence, still I hope to be able to work up a decent set of Lectures

I am glad it is only a Lecturehip. It ^{is not only} seemed better, (as I am so young) but to my English friends

Walker's Proctor

that he ever since I came back and ^{he does not think} still have for another night a well of it. I want to spend a little time in Toronto tomorrow
