Philadelphia: 1888.

Letter (Script) from S. W. M.
to W. O.

1524 Walnut Street,
Philadelphia.

8th. Feb. 1904. (Day after big fire).

Dear Osler,

We hear with distress of this awful calamity, and hearing, are prompt to say that you may for any of many reasons want to have Mrs. Osler and the boy out of Baltimore. Our big house would be glad of them at once and for as long as they are of a mind to so please us. Take us at our word.

Of course my lecture must wait a happier hour meanwhile as always

I am yours to command.

S. Weir Mitchell.

Wm. Osler Esq.
