No. 71
(Letter to Dr. C.N.B. Camac)
(typewritten)

Sept. 29th. 1905

7, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

Dear Camac:-

The bronze it is and not the lady! I think it will be very good. I am leaving out the verse for the dedication to the lady, as it looks rather as if it contained a reference to the newspaper hullabaloo about chloroform. The proof is splendid and it really will be first class, only I do not like not to have your name on the title page. What do you think? Your introduction is splendid. I think the book should have a very good sale. I will have a copy very nicely bound for Mrs. Camac for Christmas. I hope you found her better.

Ever yours,

WM. OSLER
