

CUS417/107.43

1908(?)

From Oxford.

Dear Libman:

I have forgotten whether I answered your kind letter asking me to meet the staff of the hospital. By this time you will have heard I am not going out to America this autumn. I am going off to the continent for a thorough brain-dusting. I hope to come out in the spring. What a lot of good work you men are doing at Mt. Sinai!

Sincerely yours,