

The Athenaeum,
Pall Mall S.W.,
Tuesday Eve.

(June 30th, 1914)

Dear Jacobs;

Bon voyage! I am sorry not to have seen you.

Ruth Draper tells us that she is not to be on your boat.

Just in from a dinner by the Bibliographical Society to the new Cardinal, Gasquet; all the literary book men of London - such a charming company.

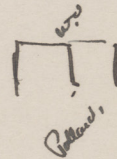

Love to Mrs. Jacobs,

Yours ever,

Wm. Osler.

He does not remember the fact that he had the dinner or at least presided. It was held at Oadenino's dinner Restaurant - Regent St. 45 June at 1 Three Reasons for our Congrat.

(a) A member of our Society -

1898 - Council since 1902. V. Pres.

since 1907. It was his term in 1910

The Pres. An active member.

Books & Book matters in chronicles and accounts. Bibliography of some Devotional Books published by early English Printers. Revision of the Vulgate last Council meeting elected Hon.
member - not perhaps a very great Hon. but it was held by order a leopold believe - so that even a Card may accept.

(b) The honour has come in recog.

of his work as a student. doing list. (1) accurate research. (2) fairness in dealing with hotly disputed points (3) rare quality of working obscure & diff. themes interesting Lackabolt of Glaslough.

(c) That the honour has come to a Benedictine. (1) The Preser-verer a transmitter of ancient literature. (2) The order which from St Augustine on has done such great work for English &
"Ultime Xianity". Cardinal

Gasquet - the most worthy son of St Benedict in this generation. Our Pride that an Englishman should preside over the International Commission for (the revision of the Vulgate)

A fourth & more personal reason - ^{him} Our guest - was born & brought up in the family of a Phy. - ... One of his books is a story of the greatest epidemics the world has seen - the Black Death - a model bit of research.

St George's special ^{or our national saint} protection in. He takes possession of the Church of St George in Velabro - He is the Cardinal of St George in Rome. And Englishmen when they visit the Eternal City may feel that in him they will have a special friend & protection -

I give you the health of our Cardinal at Rome.
