Dear Sir William,

Delighted to be with you on Thursday. I went down immediately to Finley and found that he had received your telegram, but was waiting to get information regarding the date of departure of his boat before sending you a wire.

His address, by the by, is 24 Palace Mansions, W.14, and that of Falconer is Royal Societies Club, St. James Street.

It would greatly delight us if you would be our guest on Wednesday evening at 7.45 at the Canadian Officers Club, 8 Chesterfield Gardens (off Curzon Street, Mayfair), when we are giving a farewell Dinner to Finley and Starkey. I intended to write to you about this before receiving your note.

With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,
