

Indenture of Lease, made between

Mrs E. P. Davies
~~William L. Maltby~~

of the first part, and hereinafter described as the lessor, and

W. L. Maltby

of the second part, and hereinafter known as the lessee, Witnesseth, that the said WILLIAM L. MALTBY, doth hereby lease for the Term of One Year from the 1st May 1896

unto the said W. L. Maltby hereto present and accepting for Mrs Davison that is to say

to the said Lessee she having seen and examined the same before the execution of these presents, and with the said leased premises being well known being content and satisfied; and the said Lessee hereby declare that she will occupy the said leased premises as dwelling only. This lease is thus made subject to the following stipulations, viz: that the Lessee shall make all repairs customarily made by tenants, during the present lease, and at the termination thereof, shall peaceably surrender the said premises in the like condition as when taken possession of, (reasonable tear and wear being allowed); that the said Lessee shall not make any alterations in the said leased premises, without the consent of the lessor, and in case any such alterations should be made then the Lessee shall be bound to place the said leased premises in the same state in which they were at the commencement of present lease, unless said lessor prefers that the said alterations should remain, without any recompense being allowed to the Lessee for such alterations; that she shall constantly keep the hereby leased premises furnished according to law for the security of the rent hereinafter stipulated; that she shall not make over her interest in the present, nor sublet the whole or any part of the premises hereby leased without the consent of the lessor being first obtained in writing for that purpose. The Lessor shall not be bound to make any repairs whatever, even grosses reparations during this lease, but should any grosses reparations or any other repairs be deemed necessary in the said leased premises, and the Lessor desires to make them, the said Lessee shall permit the same to be performed, without demanding any reduction in the said rent, or any damages.

The said Lessee doth hereby agree to pay the yearly ~~assessment of the said leased premises~~, water tax, ~~the city school tax, and~~ ~~and every other special tax~~ which may be imposed thereon by the Corporation of the City of Montreal, or of the Municipality in which this property is situated, or by the Government; and perform all the requirements of the Police and Fire Departments, to the perfect exoneration of the lessor; and the said lessee shall remove the snow and ice, when necessary, from the roof of the building, pay for and attend to sweeping of chimnies, ~~and shall pay for the expense of cleaning and emptying the pipes of the said leased premises~~ whenever required so to do by order of the Police, and during the last three months of the present lease shall allow such person or persons as may be desirous of obtaining a lease of the said premises, to visit the same at reasonable hours; and shall also permit notices of such intended lease to be put up on the premises. It is especially and distinctly understood and agreed by and between the parties, that all the water and drain pipes, heating apparatus, water closets, sinks and baths, and the appurtenances thereof on said premises, shall be protected by the said Lessee from frost during winter, and kept at all times free from any uncleanness or obstruction that might prevent the free working of the same; and any repairs needful to keep them in perfect working order shall be borne by the said Lessee on pain of costs and damages; that the furniture, goods, chattels, and effects, of every kind and description, belonging to the lessee shall be security for the payment of the rent for the entire term, and shall not be removed from the said leased premises, until the rent for the whole term be paid even if not due, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary, notwithstanding, for without this condition the present lease would not have been made; nothing herein contained to be deemed or construed as comminatory or evasive, but of rigour, and the said lessee shall pay all extra premium of assurance that the Company or Companies, at which the premises now leased may be insured, shall exact in consequence of the business or works done or carried on therein by the said lessee. In case of the insolvency of the said Lessee, or his making any assignment of estate, this Lease shall ipso facto become null and void, after the expiry of the year then current during which such assignment is made, for the remainder of the term thereof, without any notice to the Assignee or to any other person or persons whatever.

Lessee furnishes smoke pipes to furnace

This Lease is further made for and in consideration of the sum of One hundred
