rec^d yours of 10th instant and would have replied to it sooner but thought it as well to wait the Stage & save a postage I know the many manner in which Mr Toumain has wrote you - he tells you to let him know the marks & N^{os} of the Bales Boxes &c, but he knows very well that this is of little Use in claiming the property as the Sailors had the greater part of the Goods unpacked and the Envelopes destroyed before I saw the property.

from all that I have seen, known & heard of this man I do not believe that he has any intention of giving up with any thing unless compelled, and although I am as fully convinced as you that the whole proceedings at Chedocamp was illegal and might involve the Parties concerned in very serious consequences, yet I have rather than now Manry to spend to bring them to Justice, and I do not think the owners of the property would re-munerate altho private to do so, all therefore that I mean to do all after is Mr vs Bailey, Clinin & some thing to myself if it can be come at as you will observe that I get no re

Munition unless the property comes through my hands

I have wrote twice to Messrs Bailey and give them an idea of the State of things at Cape Whellan - will write them again soon and also to Mr Clark at Sydney my correspondence with Mr Jamieson was every thing but pleasant, and I kept no copy, I recollect however the substance of what I wrote him, but as a thorough investigation is not contemplated I need not recapitulate - for my State however in a private way between ourselves there I have learned enough of Mr J. to know that his conduct on nearly all occasions he has occasion to act as agent for Lloyd is disgraceful in the extreme - he is generally the Auctioneer & Purchaser of every thing himself - this week I saw one itself - when I arrived at Chidcomb I found a ^{few} number of the Name of Beate Postings up advertisements to sell the property next day in the name of Mr Jamieson, and that without any previous survey, and advantage taken of the absence of the Chief Inhabitants of the place who were all at Peter getting their fishing Supplies, and who could not be expected home to the sale, it was evident by this he meant to purchase the whole for the

J. - when I ascertained these facts I immedi-ately protested against the proceedings as illegal in the presence of 2 respectable individuals (there being no magistrate near) a copy of which I have sent me, and one of the Witnesses are now here, I then wrote to Mr J. - stating what I had done and his reply is a specimen of Genuine Surrender - I also sent a letter to each of the parties holding the Goods declaring them accountable for the whole value of the Goods if they suffered any illegal disposal of them to take place

The Jewish man (I act) on receiving the protest appeared in that he would interfere no further with them, and so far as I know he did not directly do so - I endeavored to get possession of the property by getting the salvage, but every offer of this kind made was rejected and finding I could do nothing further I went on to the Magdalen Island where the first Savage part of the party had been landed - after I was gone I was told that a Mr M. M. a magistrate with one either principal or party Mr ~~J. M. M.~~ ^{T. M. M.} and 2 Catholic priests went together and celebrated an what was to be done, and finally sold off the whole concern without reserve the greater part of the Goods I saw had never been in the Water, and had no right, to be sold, for the marks of such a bound man, but a lust deal of the property was impacted and so huddled together that it was impossible to tell what it consisted of without a deal of trouble

The proper way to do with the proceeds of such a property would be to make a Division among all the parties concerned - from Satisfaction that Justice can not be done in any other way

You really can not form an Idea of the trouble this affair has cost me I have I think several months of time wrote some Quires of paper and Expended a deal of money besides receiving unmeasured abuse from the whole nest of rippers that this Nick Booby has attracted round it - among other documents I have Copies of Memorials sent to his Jas Nunt reporting the illegal proceedings at the May Dubne Islands, to which I got a very polite answer, also a Memorial to Sir P. Maitland informing him of the illegal proceedings of the magistrates of Cape Pruetan and informing him that a considerable
