Sir,

Referring to your letter to the Secretary dated 15th Nov^r respecting the condemnation of the Ship Deveron - from Quebec to London being an Indemnitee on her. I will thank you to collect as evidence of the fact the testimonies of yourself & other respectable Parties ~~who are aware of all the facts~~ before a Notary to send the same home without delay - the loss will not be settled until your reply shall have been received - any expences that you may be put to by the above I shall be happy to repay in any way most convenient to yourself, or by an order on me addressed as above - allow me at the same time to thank you on behalf of the Indemnitee for the trouble you have already taken in this affair.

I remain

Sir

James Abbott Sewth

Herbert R. Mortimer

James Dawson Esq
